

STUDIO D'ARTE
ANDROMEDA

Dear Friend, Studio d'Arte Andromeda the invitation of Tremembè non-profit organization based in Trento, offers on the occasion of the World Cup to be held next June in Brazil, to hold a competition, limited only to a few designers invited on theme:

"Sex tourism and child sex tourism"

A jury will select the best entries and the selected images will be printed on giant posters and hung in the Fortaleza airport of Brazil during the World Cup. All the works will then be displayed in an exhibition in Trento during a day Illustrative which will be organized at the Art School Alessandro Vittoria of Trento.

The city of Trento and Trentino are very much related to the countries of South America such as Argentina, Brazil and Chile in the late 800 and early 900's saw a wave of migration to those countries Trentini and relations are still very much alive.

The Association Tremembè non-profit organization operating for many years and is supported by the Autonomous Province of Trento.

We attach a summary sheet.

If for any reason you could not accede to the proposal we ask you to communicate this to give others a chance to participate.

The works can arrive at the Studio d'Arte Andromeda also in digital format at info@studioandromeda.net in high quality 300 dpi, if the size exceeds 5 MB www.wetransfer.com use.

The deadline is the day March 15, 2014

As subject signe: tremembè

Association Tremembè non-profit organization, was founded in Trento in March 1999 and is involved: in Brazil to accompany the micro-projects of development cooperation, agreed and shared with local partners including the Brazilian Association of NGOs Caiçara, the Diocesan Caritas and populations involved in the State of Ceara in the Northeast of Brazil. in Trentino and Italian works to raise awareness and bring up to an economy of justice, to the global community and interculturalism in particular promotes: a culture of diversity reception; meetings on the topic of responsible tourism; campaigns against child sex tourism; reviews film on Brazil; international seminars on Brazil, Portuguese language courses; Tremembè is a member of AITR (Italian Association for Responsible Tourism)